Postgraduate Degree in English and American Studies (EAS)

Career plan ("piano carriera") for 2024-25 entering students

First year (60 credits for 2024-25)

- Teaching English as a second language (first year) (L-LIN-12, 9 credits)
- English/postcolonial literature (first year) (L-LIN/10, 9 credits)
- North-American literature (first year) (L-LIN/11, 9 credits)
- North American history and institutions (SPS/05, 9 credits)
- Students choose two courses (18 credits) among the following:
  - Digital humanities (L-LIN/11)
  - Film and multimedia (L-ART/06)
  - Italian literature (L-FIL-LET/10)
- Students choose one or two courses (total: 6 credits) among the following:
  - Italian for international students beginner level **
  - Italian for international students pre-intermediate level **
  - Elective lab
  - Internship
  - Workshop public debating (L-LIN/12)
  - Workshop: North American literature and culture (L-LIN/11)
  - Workshop: United States history and government (SPS/05)

Second year (60 credits for 2024-25)

- Teaching English as a second language (second year) (L-LIN-12, 9 credits)
- English/postcolonial literature (second year) (L-LIN/10, 9 credits)
- North-American literature (second year) (L-LIN/11, 9 credits)
- Approaches to language teaching (L-LIN/02, 9 credits)
- Insegnamenti a scelta libera (9)
- Final thesis (15 credits)

Total credits: 120

Notes

* 5 exam.
 Italian For International Students (3 credits) is mandatory for all international students.

1. Elective(s) can be taken in the first or second year and can include any course or workshop among those offered by the university within the students’ field of study. Internships cannot be chosen as electives.